DEATHS.

—Mr. Frank R. Armstrong died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Robt. Parks, at Pineville, Ky., Thursday night, after a lingering illness of paralysis.

Mr. Armstrong was a resident of Paris for many years and held in the highest regard by all. He was at one time Mayor of Paris, and also served a term as Sheriff of the county. He was noted for his courtly manners, pleasing disposition, and as a man of the strictest integrity.

He is survived by his wife, nee Lewis, and four sons, Messrs. Douglas and Joseph Armstrong, of Chicago, Frank Armstrong, of Los Angeles, and Cassius Clay Armstrong, of Arizona, and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Parks, of Pineville, with whom he resided at the time of his death, and Mrs. Isabella Freeze, of Breathitt county.

He was 64 years of age, an Odd Fellow and Charter member of Garth Lodge, No. 43, A. O. U. W. and of the Knights of Honor, carrying $4,000 insurance in the two latter orders.

The funeral took place from the 3:30 p. m. train Saturday, the interment being in the Paris cemetery. Services by Rev. R. S. Litsinger. The pallbearers were: Judge Denis Dundon, Wm. Myall, N. C. Fisher, James A. Stewart, W. T. Brooks, W. L. Yerkes, J. W. Davis and George Howard.

A peculiar circumstance connected with Mr. Armstrong's death was that his brother-in-law, Douglas Lewis, died in Cincinnati at about the same hour and was buried here Sunday afternoon in the same lot.

—Douglas P. Lewis, aged 62 years, a former citizen of this county, died Thursday at his home in Cincinnati, of general debility. Mr. Lewis was the son of Douglas Lewis, once a prominent Bourbon county farmer, and served with gallantry in the Confederate army. He is survived by three brothers, Howard Lewis, of Arkansas; Frank Lewis, of St. Louis, Mo., and Asa Lewis, of Asheville, N. C.; and three sisters, Mrs. Maggie Chapline, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, of Pineville, Ky., and Mrs. Bettie Howard, of Paris.

The body arrived here Sunday morning and the funeral services took place at the grave in the Paris cemetery, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. R. S. Litsinger, of the Episcopal church.

—James Matthews, aged 54 years, died Sunday near Old Union. Mr. Matthews was formerly of Harrison county. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and burial at Old Union Cemetery.

Farm Sold.

U. S. G. Pepper sold his farm, the old John Bedford place, near Millersburg, yesterday, to Mr. Flanagan at $115 per acre. There are about 200 acres in the place.

Wills Probated.

The will of Mrs. Mary F. Hedges was probated in the County Court yesterday by Judge Denis Dundon. She disposed of her property as follows:

She bequeaths to her sister, Kate B. Mann, the house and lot on Pleasant street, during her life; after her death it is to go to her husband, Judge Russell Mann if he survives her. After the death of Judge and Mrs. Mann, it is to go to her two nephews, Whittington and Ray Mann, and three nieces, Fannie Hedges Swango, Nellie Russell Kenney and Hattie Hill Mann, if either die without issue it reverts to the surviving nephews and nieces.

She bequeaths to Hattie Hill Mann everything in her room, also four shares of Deposit Bank stock and all cash she has on hand.

She bequeaths to her sister, Kate B. Mann a note of $840 and $200 to keep in repair the family lot at the cemetery.

She bequeaths to J. P. Hutchcraft one share of Deposit Bank stock. She asks the Court to appoint Judge Russell Mann executor of the estate without bond.

The will of Peter O'Connell was also probated yesterday. He leaves all money and personal effects he had at the time of his death to Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, of Millersburg, stating it to be but a slight token for the kind treatment given him by Mrs. Mitchell in his late illness.
